MIKIE SHERRILL
GOVERNOR

October 30, 2026

Dear Dr. Jamila T. Davis,

On behalf of the State of New Jersey, it is with great pleasure that I extend my sincere congratulations and recognition to Dr. Jamila T. Davis and Partners Uplifting Our Daughter and Sons in honor of Domestic Violence Awareness Month.

Domestic Violence Awareness Month provides an opportunity to raise awareness, honor survivors, and reaffirm our shared commitment to safety, dignity, and healing. You have dedicated your advocacy and community service to uplifting women and families, amplifying survivors' voices, and helping individuals recognize their worth and pursue lives free form abuse. Through your work with Partners Uplifting Our Daughter and Sons and your broader community partnerships, you have advanced education, empowerment, and opportunities for people to rebuild their lives.

As Governor, I commend the work you have accomplished and your efforts and commitment to survivor-centered support. Constantly, reflecting the importance of bringing communities and institutions together to address domestic violence and strengthen pathways to healing and opportunity. It is an honor to recognize and commend you and Partners Uplifting Our Daughters and Sons for your service and commitment to supporting survivors, strengthening families, and advancing awareness of domestic violence.

Congratulations on all of your work, and thank you for your service.

Sincerely,

Mikie Sherrill
Governor
